Mavericks Release 2011 Schedule

Mavs will begin 21st season of baseball in the High Desert on April 14th

The High Desert Mavericks are pleased release their preliminary schedule for the 2011 season.

After opening the season with seven road games, the Mavs will play 14 of their remaining 16 games in April at home. The fun begins Thursday, April 14 against the Lake Elsinore Storm.

The Mavs will host the Lancaster JetHawks on Memorial Day, and for the third straight year, the Mavs will celebrate Independence Day on July 4 when they take on the Stockton Ports.

“It’s exciting to release our schedule to the public so they can start planning for next season,” said Mavs GM Tim Altier. “With all the recent uncertainty about our future, our fans will be happy to see the High Desert Mavericks on the 2011 California League schedule.” Fans can reserve their seats throughout the year with season tickets or mini-plan packages, which will be available after this season concludes.

The Mavs are in the hunt for a playoff spot in September, so head out to the ballpark and cheer on the team as they face their South Division rivals throughout July and August. You can’t miss Backwards Night on July 31 or Red, White, and Blue Fireworks Night on August 14. Call the Mavs office for tickets at 760 – 246- 6287.

Game times and promotions for 2011 will be announced at a later date.
